

A notice to the public by Max Brenner industries Ltd.

In an examination carried out in our factory, a small number of units have been found to be packaged in the wrong packaging.

The hazelnut and caramelized wafer flakes cream filled white chocolate packaging may contain a milk chocolate bar filled with peanut butter and peanut crumble and honey.

The product is marked as may contain peanuts in the allergenic warning, however, due to caution and responsibility towards our clients, an initiated recall is being carried out due to a possibility that in fact it does contain peanuts.

Allergenic information in the peanut bar: contains peanuts and milk.

May contain: nuts (cashew, almond, pistachio, hazelnut, pecan, walnut), eggs, sesame, soy, wheat and barley – gluten).

The product in which the error may be found, is marked with the expiry date of 04.05.19, with a batch number 18018160, whomever is in possession of a product with this date and batch number and is allergic to peanuts, or any of the aforementioned allergens, is requested not to consume the product and is invited to contact customer support in the telephone number: 1700-7088-77.

Aside from that, the product is undamaged and is permissible for consumption.

A customer interested in exchanging to the correct product or to receive the correct nutritional information list is invited to call the customer service.
