The following is Galil's Company announcement:

Recall for Whole Sesame Tahini

The company Galil Beehive Products informs its customers that as part of a constant process of strict quality control that we conduct for the products we market, we conducted an self-initiated inspection of the Whole Sesame Tahini produced by "Ambasel Trading House, Gondar Ethiopia", which is imported by Horvitz Trade & Marketing and marketed by Galil Beehive Products in jars containing 380 grams (barcode: 7290000411682) and 720 grams (barcode: 7290000411699).

The findings indicate that Salmonella is suspected of being found in a product whose date of validity is "preferable to use before 02/2020" only, and as a precaution, we collect the product from the stores from all expiry dates up to and including 02/2020.

The public who purchased the product is asked not to consume it and return it to the place of purchase in order to receive a credit.
