

12/12/2018

Suspected Lysteria Monocytogenesis in Chocolate Balls From the Bakery Elkhazab

The Elkhazab bakery, from neighborhood 24 Rahat, notifies consumers that a sample taken by the Southern District Food Service was found to have lysteria monocytogenes in chocolate balls in a few units of the product sold at the factory store.

The best by date is 17.12.2018

And marketed in various weights.

The Elkhazab Bakery withdrew the product and consumers are requested not to consume it.

Lysteria monocytogenes is a bacterium that can cause disease in a high-risk populations, such as a people with a weakened immune system, the elderly, or pregnant women.

The Elkhazab bakery apologizes to its customers.

Tel for inquiries 08-9918227, Ibrahim

