"MATAMEI SOVA SEMACHOT (BNEI BRAK) LTD." is announcing:

Suspicion for the presence of listeria monocytogenes bacteria in cream cake with butterscotch.

"MATAMEI SOVA SEMACHOT (BNEI BRAK) LTD." is notifying its consumers that in a sampling conducted by the National Food Services – The District Health Bureau, Tel Aviv, suspicion for the presence of listeria monocytogenes bacteria in the 500-gr cream cake with butterscotch has been found, the product's bar code 200044.

"MATAMEI SOVA SEMACHOT (BNEI BRAK) LTD." has recalled all the products from the shelves and is requesting not to consume the product. The product is marked with the expiry date 23.01.20.

Listeria Monocytogenes is a bacterium that can cause illness in high-risk populations, such as those with weakened immune systems and the elderly and may cause miscarriages in pregnant women.

"MATAMEI SOVA SEMACHOT (BNEI BRAK) LTD." apologized to its consumers.

For any questions please contact our customer service, telephone number 03-6746464, Perla.