

Williger Industries Ltd. is Informing Concerning an Initiated Recall of Smoked Salmon

following testing carried out by the Ashkelon Health

Bureau food services in which listeria monocytogenes bacteria was found in the product chilled smoked salmon in a 100-gr package, brand Vking, barcode 7290002077725 manufactured by Williger Industries Ltd.

Only from the manufacturing date

07.11.19

expiry date

07.12.19

Listeria monocytogenes bacteria may cause disease in high risk populations such as those with a weakened immune system, the elderly, and may cause miscarriages in pregnant women.

In coordination with the food services and as a precaution, we are halting the marketing and are recalling the product as is specified and are requesting to return in.

The public is requested not to consume the aforementioned product. The product may be returned for a refund in coordination with our customer service in telephone:

1-800-50-40-50

For additional details, the company can be contacted by the telephone:

1-800-50-40-50